

DUCHY of CORNWALL

The Great Field, Poundbury Have your say

The Duchy of Cornwall is bringing forward plans to create new community facilities on The Great Field in Poundbury.

New outdoor and recreational facilities will help create a vibrant amenity space for the residents of Poundbury and Dorchester to enjoy.

We would like you to take part in a public consultation, to help shape the plans and tell us what you think should be included on The Great Field. Let us know what you think at two public consultation events.
